CENTRAL STATES SECTION
The Combustion Institute

_____

AGENDA

Section Business Meeting

Monday, Mar 22, 2010, 1:20-1:45 PM

Location: i-Hotel, Champaign, Illinois

_____

1. Welcome and Introductions
    Indrek Wichman opened the meeting and welcomed everyone. He expressed appreciation to Nick Glumac as the local host and the team who assisted him at the University of Illinois. Appreciation was also extended to Jim Seaba for serving as the Program Chair for the meeting.

2. Approval of the Minutes
    The minutes from the 2009 section business meeting were approved unanimously.

3. Upcoming Meetings
    Section members were reminded of the national meeting in Atlanta, Georgia on 20-23 March 2011 as well as the international meeting this summer in China. They were also reminded of the 2012 section meeting in Dayton Ohio.

4. Art Contest Winners
    The winners of the 2010 art contest were announced.
    1st Place - L. Justin Williams - University of Alabama
    2nd Place – Yanan Gan and Li Qiao – Purdue University
    3rd Place – Tanisa Booker – University of Alabama

5. Treasurer Report
    The membership of the section was informed that the section has $49,675 in the budget. They were also reminded that we are not trying to grow our budget and that we try to support student involvement in the section meetings and with travel to the international symposium.

6. Elections
    The members of the section were informed that L-D Chen, Ken Brezinsky had completed their time on the board and their service to the section was highlighted. They were also informed that Satbir Singh had moved out of the section geographical boundaries and would no longer be able to serve on the board. Three new board members were nominated including Timothy Jacobs of Texas A&M University, Charles Baukal of the John Zink Company, and Suresh Aggarwal of the University of Illinois at Chicago. No nominations were submitted from the floor. The voting was unanimous in favor for these three nominees.

7. Adjournment